REPORTS CHANGES IN POLISH GOVERNMENT

SAYS APPOINTMENTS ATTRACT LITTLE NOTICE ABROAD -- Svenska Dagbladet, No 188, 16 Jul 50

Vienna, July -- In the last few weeks, important changes have taken place in the Polish government, but which have attracted little attention abroad. They began with the appointment of Alexander Zawadski, the regular representative of the Polish Communists at the Cominform Bureau and heretofore the chairman of the Miners' Union, to the post of Deputy Chairman of the Council of Ministers This former miner from the Dombrowa region was politically and militarily trained in Moscow and a pronounced Red fanatic after having served a long term of imprisonment for political reasons in prewar Poland. After the war, as a wojewodztwo office in Upper Silesia, Zawadski showed himself to be very skilled in the matter of solving difficult administrative tasks. He now jointly exercises the actual lectership of the Cabinet together with Undersecretary of State Jakub Berman, who diplomatically keeps himself in the back-

The Cabinet, as is known, is headed by the former Social Democrat Cyrankiewicz, who is Chairman of the Council of Ministers but lacks influence. Furthermore, the Communist specialist on agricultural problems, Hilary Chelchowski, has been appointed Deputy Chairman of the Council of Ministers. This means that the representative of the Agrarian Party thus far, Korzycki, has outlived his role. The radical regime in Warsaw is at present carrying out the socialization of agriculture in a purely Communist way without the now superfluous camouflage the similarly oriented Agrarian Party previously provided.

The organization of the new town and district councils, set up completely in accordance with the Soviet model, has been made the responsibility of the head of the newly established Ministry of Communal Economy, the former Communist mayor of Lodz, Mijal. Until recently, Mijal was the President's Cabinet director, an indication of the importance attached to this change in the administrative system. A new post has also been given the former Minister of Navigation, Adam Rapacki, one of the few former Social Democrats accepted into the Politburo
